

Queen of All Saints will be offering two Little Rock Scripture Studies this fall. They are Introduction to the Bible and The Acts of the Apostles. The Introduction to the Bible study is designed to open the Bible with newcomers and experienced Bible students alike. Participants will become comfortable finding their way around the Bible, develop a better understanding of its themes and writing styles, and gain clear insights about Catholic use and interpretation of the Bible. The Acts of the Apostles study designed to show how the excitement of Pentecost enlivened the early believers in their struggles to establish communities of faith – struggles surprisingly like those today. All sessions will be held in the second floor of the Benedict Center (6275 N. Ionia Ave.).

Introduction to the Bible study has thirteen sessions. They will be held on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. The sessions will begin on Tuesday August 24th and run until Tuesday November 16th.

The Acts of the Apostles study has nineteen sessions. We will be offering the sessions on Monday morning from 9:30 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. and Thursday evening from 7:30 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. The morning sessions will begin on August 23rd and run until January 10th. The evening sessions will begin on September 16th and run until February 10th.

Introduction to the Bible and The Acts of the Apostles will cost twenty ($20.00) dollars to cover the cost of the materials used. Each participant will receive a study set consisting of a study guide and a commentary. Each participant should also have a bible. The recommended bibles are New American Bible, the latest version has a copyright for the Psalms of 1991, or The New Jerusalem Bible. These bibles have annotated comments on the text which will help in your study. If you already have an annotated New Revised Standard Version with the Apocrypha, you may use it. More information concerning Little Rock Scripture Study can be obtained at www.littlerockscripture.org.

To enroll please send in the following application form with a check made out to Queen of All Saints Basilica for twenty ($20.00) dollars for arrival by August 6th, 2010 for the studies beginning in August or September 2nd for the study beginning in September.
